MAY, 1996

Head of the Lifeline

by Gary Butler

It's May so it means its time for the new officers to take office and the new president to write articles. I hope you do not suffer too much this year. To begin, I want to thank the outgoing officers for the wonderful job they did last year. It would be hard to come up with a group who would do better. I can speak from experience how lucky Space City was to get this group last year. I wish to especially thank Marti Toomer for the superb job she did during the year keeping the club together and expanding our horizons.

Now, on to the 1996-97 officers. Stepping up to the plate at V.P. of Programs is Don Crabtree, taking up probably the most difficult position in the club. Don's involvement in Space City goes from running many activities, trip coordinator to Park City and a past club race director. He has the experience and enthusiasm to do a great job with assistance of the membership. Don has already planned activities through the Christmas Party but he needs your help. Without VOLUNTEERS we cannot run all the activities we have, happy hours would disappear and there would not be General Meetings. Don needs activity coordinators, program coordinators, etc. Please give him a call today.

We were real lucky when George Flournoy volunteered to become V.P. of Trips. George was a Director of Trips last year and before that he ran an Aspen trip. He has been active in the club for many years. He has already done excellent work towards planning next year's trips. I feel everyone will be pleased when he announces his trip schedule. George has been fighting to keep trip prices at a decent level. He has already picked a super management team: DOTs, Susan Blome and Dave Stotz.

Debbie Warren already has a reputation as a can do person so she should do a great job as our V.P. of Membership. Debbie ran the enormously popular Big Sky trip this year. She has been active running activities and volunteering when needed. She will need volunteers to man the membership tables at the General Meetings and Ambassadors to help new members. I expect great things from Debbie this year.

Replacing me as V.P. of Publications is another repeat, Karen Putney. Karen has the background to do a great job on the Sitzmarke and she has great ideas. In order to improve the Sitz, she needs help: writers, a current event editor, a volunteer spotlight editor and help selling advertising. You can help make the Sitz even more special.

Our Secretary is the club's volunteering specialist Llona Doubet. Llona has run the ski trip to Winter Park, ATC to Steamboat, ran many activities, been involved in about a million Follies and has stepped up when needed as she did at the 30th anniversary party. This coming year should feel like a vacation to her.

Last, but definitely not the least, is Jeff Sarff as Treasurer. This is one of the most demanding and least appreciated jobs within Space City. The job goes on five months after everyone else's year is complete. Closing out all trips and activities and submitting a tax return is critical to the club. We got a great one in Jeff. Last year, he was the club Auditor so he knows what to expect this year. He has done it all in the club, ran the Mt. Bachelor trip last year, ran activities and more importantly has often volunteered his time. I expect the Treasurer to be a huge asset this year.

On a very sad note one of our members, Rosanne Clark, past away recently. She was a very active member for a number of years. Our sympathy and condolences go out to her family and friends.

FROM THE SKI DESK

by George Flourney, V.P.-Trips

SAN ANTONIO UNDER SIEGE BY SKIERS! Dateline April 15, San Antonio, Texas The River Walk was the scene this past weekend for late season skiers arriving from as far away as Canada and Italy to talk SNOW and TRIPS!!! Once again skiers migrated south to The Annual Texas Ski Council Meeting to caucus (new word for exaggerating one's skiing abilities) and select ski trips for the forthcoming season. For you new club members, the Texas Ski Council (TSC) is an organization of several Texas ski clubs dedicated to serving its members interests. One of the functions that the organization performs is to select sites for the next ski season, where member Texas clubs will ski together. So, we selected some great trips for you!!!

Before I announce next years trips, I have to confess a few SCSC secrets. It takes a ton of paperwork and scads and scads (not to be confused with scuds) of hard work to pull this thing off. Thirty-three SCSC'ers braved the Katy Freeway (green run) to assist their club in its time of need. This included officers, board members, TSC Reps, DOTS, and several willing volunteers. Believe me, without their help this would not have come off nearly as smoothly as it did. If I mentioned all their names and contributions, it would take up all of my column for the year....humm, a good idea, si? However, there is one person I do have to tell you about. This guy gave of himself all last year. There were many, many late nights of hard, hard work. He performed unselfishly all year to bring us the finest trips available in the market. He has been an invaluable resource to me and to this club. ALL OF US SHOULD SAY

THANK YOU, MERREL SMITH, FOR AN OUTSTANDING YEAR!!!

So as we bid Merrel adieu (that's French for adios) we welcome Jorge and the Bandidos. Quien es los Bandidos? Or: Who dat, dem DOTS? in local talk! I have the distinct pleasure of announcing the appointment of Susan Blome and Dave Stotz as partners in crime a.k.a. SUPERDOTS. These two have already put in mega work to put together next years trips. Very soon, you may get a letter in the mail from a SUPER DOT saying you may have already won. Won what you ask? Why a nifty keen position as a Trip Coordinator (TC) or Assistant Trip Coordinator (ATC)...but you can not win unless your name is entered in the super jackpot.

Contact your local DOT for entry blanks.

So on to great news!!! The TSC voted on some FANTASTIC TRIPS for next year. Fall Roundup (Thanksgiving) will be Keystone, Colorado. Traditional (Jan 4-11) will be held at Snowmass, Colorado. Those of you who are not familiar with a TSC trip, historically Traditional is the big do. At some of these functions as many as a thousand Texas skiers descend (pun intended) upon a resort town. So naturally, many ski resorts covet this type of business so they can add big name skiers, like SCSC SKIDOGS, to their marquee (look out Tommy M.). Present plans (subject to disclaimers) are for two long trips and one short trip. In the past, many of our members have expressed a desire to fly directly into Aspen airport. Since airline service to this airport has been drastically curtailed, prices have been at the Apollo 13 level (stratosphere). Hopefully we will be able to offer one trip into Aspen Airport or Eagle Vail and a second trip that will result in more economic savings. At Winter Expedition we will be saying things like bongerno and gratzi (I only pronounce it, no claims to spelling). That's right, we are going to JAPAN!!! Well that's not really where we are going but.... I know you think I cannot spell Italy. The name of the area is Val Di Fasse which in Italian means Valley of Fasse (and this is only April...11 more months of reading this TRASH). This will be a primo trip. Dates are Jan 17-25. More later. Perhaps the best deal of all will be the Winter Shootout in Purgatory, Colorado, Feb 8-15. Everyone at the presentation was very impressed by the amount of things that will be included (read free) on this trip... want a looksee? How about one day free use of the new Elan side cut skis? Not to be out done our MOOSE CALLING brethren in the North have invited us to Sugarloaf, Maine for Final Showdown, March 8-15. Why just to be competitive, they offered free (There's that "f" word again) bus refreshments. Something about a Slim Jim and a quart of beer for the crowd. Got to love that Maine humor!!! We will get 7 wonderful days of it in the spring. PS... they had fresh powder there last Friday. I sincerely believe this will be a fantastic trip. The Maine crowd is planning to attend the (maybe) October meeting to tell all!!! What about club trips? Saving the best for last, the first trip will be to Flat Top Mountain in Kansas; not too much grade but the altitude is easy on the lungs. Other places we are planning (please note the word planning) are Breckenridge, Vail, A learn to Ski Trip (really), Whistler, Jackson Hole and Mt. Bachelor. There will be others, maybe. So as they say in southern Mexico, adios yall.

RACEY NEWS

by Steve Benson

It seems as though the ski season just started and it's already over. The "Race For The Cup" is history and Space City didn't win. Our club has some very good Nastar racers and we were well represented in the individual races, but we could not gather enough racers nor enough good runs on any of the TSC trips to win. We finished second three times and third once. For the season, we finished third overall since Lone Star and Los Amigos each won first place twice. If my calculations are correct, Lone Star won the Cup. Both of our competitor clubs had the help of extra handicap points because Space City won the Cup for so many years in a row. Those handicap points will decrease as they improve their records and it won't be so hard for us to win again. However, we still have to get more of our good skiers to compete and more racers overall in order to win. We would not have won first place on any of the TSC trips even if there were no handicap points to overcome. I'm hoping our competitive juices will flow again. It has been a couple of years since we won the Cup.

The Winter Shootout was held at Steamboat this year. Lone Star must have brought every racer in Dallas. They had twice as many racers as we did. Consequently, there was no way we could have won first place. We did well to have placed second. E.J. Boudreaux helped by earning 16 points and a blue challenger medal in his first ever Nastar club race. Chris Goll and race director Kevin King placed second and third in the individual races. Leslie Cashio, who was the fastest woman in the club race, Reen Catanzaro, Bill Landfield, and Joe Giamarco also won medals in the individual races.

Mammoth Mountain was the scene of the Final Showdown this year. Space City placed second again, behind Los Amigos this time. Charles Butler, race director, assembled some good skiers for Space City, so we were only 74 points from first place. Only two or three more good runs would have given us a chance to finish the season with our first win. Congratulations to all who raced, for doing so well. Our Space City speedsters won three out of the four divisions in the individual races and took second in the fourth. Karin Schidlowski won Senior Women's, Kurt Schidlowski placed second in Senior Men's, Kayleen Kill won Women's, and Chris Goll won Men's. Rita Whale also won a medal in the women's division. Ted Bergeron, through dedication and perseverance, managed to turn in the fastest time of all the male youngsters in the club race.

I've enjoyed working as club race director this season and look forward to the next race director having lots of good results to report. I hope all you ski bums and bunnies will work out this summer and get in good shape for next season.

Programs

by Don Crabtree

Since my nomination was announced last February, many of my friends have commented, somewhat humorously, that I must be a glutton for punishment or that I crave tension, controversy, unrelenting pressure and impossible deadlines. Fact is, I think I'm a lucky guy to be extended the opportunity to plan and promote the club's social activities and programs and you can rest assured that I take this position seriously and with as much enthusiasm and vision as I can muster. In other words, I'm proud to be your VP of Programs and pledge to do my very best not let you folks down!

At this time I'd like to urge all members who think they might want to manage or assist in any activity or program to send in the activity volunteer form that was included in the March and April Sitzmarke. Or contact me directly by mail or phone and let me know what you want to do. Volunteering for activities is one of the best ways for new as well as veteran members to expand their horizons and get to know some really great people. Heck, that's how I got started only a few short years ago and now I've got the best job in the whole darn club! (Please allow me just a smidgen of arrogance here!) If you feel that you have directed enough activities and just want to coast for a while, then why not help new activity coordinators by being a mentor. Mentors are volunteer past executive board officers or experienced Activity Coordinators of SCSC who wish to help the V.P. of Programs by serving Activity Coordinators who are new or that need assistance. Mentors are to train and motivate coordinators and to follow-up on paperwork necessary for a successfully run activity. Mentors will serve the coordinators from the time the budget is approved until final reports are turned in to the V.P. of Programs. Mentors should at all times be positive and upbeat about the activity and the club when performing their responsibilities.

As this column goes to press the following activities and ACs are being considered: Texas Terror Arena Football, August/Robert Fulwiler. Take in Houston's latest pro sports franchise and enjoy everyone's favorite sport in an exciting new format at the Summit. Road Rally, August/Pam Smith. Pam's budget has been approved and she is planning some new features to what has become one of our more well-attended activities, so be sure to sign-up at the May general meeting. We're still trying to repeat last year's Cancun four-night trip, unfortunately we can't get last year's attractive price ($420) or weekend departure schedule. Lori Matthews (AC) and I haven't given up on other venues and will continue to pursue this possibility although time is running short for an August agenda. Golf Weekend, October /Fred Wright. I've been wanting to do this for a long time and I think I've talked Fred Wright into managing a two day, 36 hole golf outing at one of the many fine golf resorts located within a reasonable distance of Houston. Halloween Party/Cheryl Houge. Cheryl and I have already secured the Westside Tennis Club clubhouse facility (thanks to Harry Gaston) for what should be yet, another memorable costume extravaganza. Christmas Party/Sue Salvage. Sue has graciously agreed to head-up our annual Christmas Soiree and I'm certain you won't want to miss this holiday event. This is only a partial listing of the activities being considered for the '96 - '97 season.

I will have a volunteer sign-up table at the May meeting. If you're interested, drop by and fill-out an activity volunteer form. Remember, most activities should be planned and budget approved at least 90 days in advance in order to successfully organize and promote, so please don't wait 'till the last minute or that event you were thinking about running may not be possible.

See you at the Follies!

Heavenly Valley

by Jim Schrock and Louella Stellar

We flew out of Houston on Saturday morning with confirmed reports that the Tahoe area had experienced their first long snowfall of the year; eight days of snow and more on the way. By Wednesday the forecast of "more on the way" was an understatement. We had a longer layover in Phoenix than expected but it gave us all time to pick up some official Superbowl souvenirs and mix a little with our group. We arrived in Reno, and with an hour bus ride to South Tahoe, it gave us a chance to view some fantastic scenery that proved the snow gods had prevailed.

Heavenly Valley Central Reservations Rep, Carol, gave us a brief orientation about Heavenly then it was time to head to the casinos and get rich. Tina Lipscomb, also known as The Dollar Slot Queen, wasted no time in picking out the lucky machines. Next year I'll listen to her. You got it; she's the only one that came home with big winnings!! June Cullum (Poker Face Cullum) wasted no time in using her profession as a Psychologist, and with the help of her financial advisor, Carolyn McGinnis, to figure out how to win (most of the time) at blackjack. Before the evening was over she had Steve Meyer and Ted Raif grabbing the first available stool. They were hooked on it for the rest of the trip. Many SCSC faces were seen nightly trying to pay for their ski trips at the tables or the slots. Some of those seen often were James Kelley, Randy Snider, Barbara Harker, Connie Smith, Greg and Kelly Wilde, Tom Hogle, Patti Richards, Thomas Zike, and David Street.

Sunday morning, everyone hit the slopes. Ann Clinton and her sidekick, Karen Kendall, both took to the snow on the new parabolic skis. Jim Schrock decided, with all the new snow, to try the new powder skis or as they are called on the mountain, "Fat Boys". They worked well with all the deep snow. Also seen that first morning was Steven Slade attempting to hire a dogsled team to carry all his gear to the top of the mountain. On the mountain you sometimes would experience several blurs whisk past you at a high rate of speed. Almost every time it would be Tom Hogle, Dale Allbritton and John Burke. It was their boyish nature surfacing. Dale Allbritton is still feuding with Tom Hogle because he claims Tom intentionally pushed him off the chairlift. Speaking of Hogle, he's not all that bad. During the week, Tom coordinated ski trips over to Northstar and Kirkwood. We understand he likes riding buses so much he may be applying for a job with Metro. While we are talking buses, ask Steve Meyer, James Barbee, and Ted Raif if they enjoyed their Friday night bus tour around Lake Tahoe. Sorry guys!!! Ted, as a consolation to you, I'm happy to announce you got voted SCSC Rookie Blackjack Player of the Year. As your prize, you win three gift certificates (two of those for your touring buddies) for a round trip on the Tahoe Queen in 1996 or 1997.

Everyday of skiing ended the same way - "Happy Hour" in the TC's condo. We had plenty of mini beers and a fine variety of wine, aged in deluxe cardboard boxes from the local grocery. Joe Kulpinsky and Margie Greenwood added a touch of class to our Happy Hours with their own vintage. As the Happy Hours concluded, everyone teamed up and headed for dinner. Planet Hollywood was the choice for one of our evening dinners. Nancy Burke stocked up on T-shirts and during dinner Tina Lipscomb told of the house in the country she plans to build with her slot earnings. Then there was the $6.99 Texas-size steak at the Horizon Casino that you could get any night. Doug and Terry Knab and the California Dreamers, Barbara Dovidas and husband Mark Picard, after hearing all the stories about this 5 lb. steak (each time the story got told, the steak got bigger) everyone was eating, marched over to the Horizon and tried it themselves. Doggie bags anyone?!!!

One of our last minute entries on the trip, Jack Thomas, joined the trip with sights set on skiing with one of our fellow skiers. We still don't know if they skied into the sunset! Also a late entry to the trip was new club members, Greg and Kelly Wilde, who shared their condo with ATC Louella Steller and her husband James Barbee, and got to assist in all the party preparations. For them this trip will always be very special as I received a phone call from Kelly last week with the good news of their first baby on the way. It's got to be that fresh mountain air. Congratulations to you both! It had to be a GOD send from HEAVENLY!

In the meantime back at Heavenly, John and Nancy Burke attacked the mountain on their radical painted ski boards as Vicki Singley was taking a 30 minute ski break on Ridge Bowl. Seen almost everyday was Bonnie and Rodney Hughes, SCSC's contenders for gold medals at the next Winter Games, skiing down the blacks. Patti Richards and Jim Schrock learned weather conditions at the mountain base can be quite different from the mountain top conditions. They both experienced what they call on the mountain, "WHITE OUT!!!!!!"

As Wednesday rolled around, so did a major storm. With winds up to 80 m.p.h. on Lake Tahoe, most everyone was "Condo Bound" or "Casino Bound". The Tahoe Queen ride across the lake to Squaw Valley was cancelled until Friday so we all headed to Harvey's Casino and pigged out on the $5.99 Mega-Buffer breakfast. (Pigs, all of us!!!) I was told during the storm the highway crews who start the avalanches asked Karen Kendall to laugh to help start a major snow slide. Also during the storm, Terri Ulrich,

Vicki Singley, Donna Hahus, and Roger Holtzman sang "Let it snow, let it snow, let it snow" as they took a $32.00 cab ride to see a movie. No cabin fever for those guys! Since the storm caused the Nastar races to be cancelled, we held them anyway in one of the casinos at the video downhill racer machine. We made so much noise cheering for each other that people came from all over the casino to see who had hit the jackpot. Instead, they saw a bunch of crazy Texans being led by Dale Allbritton, wearing his shoulder length blonde wig and sunglasses about 10 times the normal size of sunglasses.

Tony Huerta did not arrive until Wednesday but wasted no time in catching up on his skiing. Linda Thompson, who skied with us the first part of the week, had to take an early exit and flew back to Houston. As we finished breakfast, Ted Raif and Steve Meyer were seen running for the blackjack tables. James Kelly (alias Brett Maverick) won lots of money on the trip, but left poor because of having to bribe Louella Steller not to write about him in the trip story. Then there is Roger Holtzman, a Billie Kidd on the slopes and a Fred Astaire on the dance floor. Like Steven Slade, they both had hurting feet; Roger's, from thinking he was Fred Astaire, and Steven, from ski boots that were two sizes too small. Pat Walker and Cheri Staples had hurting feet too, but theirs were from Roger stepping all over them while dancing on the Tahoe Queen Friday night.

How could anyone forget the Slot Pimp (Schrock) and his ho's at Harvey's Casino. His girls, Tina Lipscomb, Carolyn McGinnis, June Cullum, Barbara Harker, and Karen Kendall, worked hard to keep their pimp's freezer bucket full of nickels. Karen got caught holding out some of her nickels and was sent back to the streets. One of the highlights of the trip was realizing "THE KING" is still alive. Matt (The King) Sheehan was asked to appear live on stage at Harvey's Emerald Theater in Dick Clark's American Band Stand Review as "The King of Rock n' Roll, Elvis Presley". When the MC asked him if he could, he answered with a confident "YES, I CAN!" and the theatre started to really rock. "The King" was met with rave reviews, well at least from our club anyway. Later that evening, as he strutted through the casino, Ann Clinton was seen begging for one of his scarves. Later, Elvis' older brother, Chris Sheehan, had trouble keeping "The King" out of the "hound dog house" with that fan who had asked for that scarf.

Our trip can be summed up in one word, "HEAVENLY"!!!! We experienced skiing at various resorts with plenty of snow. The final day at Squaw Valley more than lived up to its reputation. The fun and laughs we had each night in the casinos, Planet Hollywood, the pizza party, the condo breakfast, the Tahoe Queen ride and party, the soul singers at Harvey's who took us back to the days of The Temptations and the Four Tops, the blackjack lessons from June, and seeing Elvis are the memories we'll remember from our fantastic week in Tahoe. From Louella and myself, we both enjoyed the week skiing with all of you and hope that next year we all can do it again. Who knows, there might be another Elvis sighting!!!!

LINDNER OF ASPEN

On Friday night, a mixture of 31 veteran and nouveau ski junkies headed for the wonders of Northwestern New Mexico, where the southern tip of the Rocky Mountains burst from the semi-desert lands of the Navaho and Pueblo Indians. This burning anticipation of great skiing with some of the most challenging hills in North America was soon diminished, however. Our Taos trip had what every ski trip dreads, a no snow in weeks report. Despite the best organizational efforts of TC Stan Broniak and ATC Ken "what me worry" Shapley, it was going to be packed powder and ice with no new snow for three days. The true irony was while Taos had no snow, our Houston departure was delayed 2.5 hours due to the snow storms that were blanketing the East coast. Our 1:30AM hotel arrival made for a lot of whining and sleepy faces as room assignments and lift tickets were dispersed. Needless to say our welcome to Taos hotel reception was cancelled.

The Taos Ski Valley was reached with two private bus departures from the hotel each morning, 7:30 & 9:00AM. Few people made the 7:30AM bus from Taos. Craig Campbell was one of the exceptions. Each morning like clockwork, Craig was there to greet the bus's arrival, eating his breakfast banana in one hand and waving with the other.

Saturday offered almost Spring-like ski conditions with a few locals skiing in shorts. Others, such as Wade Stevenson, could ski like a maniac dare devil, literally finding 10 foot cliffs not at all intimidating. For you novice skiers, don't follow this guy down the mountain unless you are prepared to fly and most likely crash and burn.

Sunday was cold and some of us were underdressed after being spoiled by Saturday's warmth. And the wind did blow. Burr, Burr, Burr. This gave a great excuse to shop around and see the tourist sites. In fact a few skiers, like Carrie Niemeyer, Dianne McKenzie, and Debra Barber definitely should have won some fashion award. They actually worked some skiing into their shopping schedules. Bob "where are the honey roasted peanuts" Gottlieb, Pam "who took my handcuffs" Smith, Robert Knupp, and Michelle Baker grabbed a few drinks at the St. Bernard Pub, known for the world's best Margaritas, before our 4:30 bus back to the hotel.

That night, like the one before, would find Stuart Traver, Bob Knupp, Alex Krawtzow, Frank Adams and others in the hot tub. Sorry guys there was only one hot tub and not many women.

No wonder you guys drank most of the beer. Also that night at the Happy Hour in Ken "what me worry" Shapley's room we discovered one of apparently many hidden talents of Michelle Baker. Michelle held the room awestruck as she did her reenactment of an Indian Ceremonial dance she saw earlier that day. Seeking food and more entertainment, we headed for the great dining Taos offered. Mary Kay Kitchens, between courses, got a rise out of everyone, (including the napkin), with her innovative napkin tricks.

Monday was great skiing. Although there still wasn't any new snow, it wasn't crowded like Saturday and Sunday and the weather was great. Unfortunately, Cathy Willits, on the last run of the last day, injured her knee. Luckily, she brought her own doctor, Leroy Willits, to patch her up. During a lunchtime break at the mountain top restaurant, Ronnie Hotchkiss and Holly Richert found time to brake into an impromptu C&W dance.

Later that night, we had a pizza party, as our send off, in the hotel party room. And believe it or not this hotel pizza was outstanding and they really made it there. Derek Shoozbridge missed Monday's events due to a business trip. Ladaune Ashley used a 4 foot wooden cutout of an Indian woman as a Derek stand-in during our group photo shoot. Frank Adams has the best story ever about two dogs in love. Ask him about it!

Tuesday, before our airport departure, many of us did the tourist thing through Taos. Art galleries on your right and art galleries on your left. As we turned the corner Alex Krawtzow said, "Let me guess, more Indian Art". Some of those painting were over $3,000, and it looked like your kid could have painted them. End of that story. Mike Stenberg bought a T-shirt that said, "If it slopes, I ski it. If it pores, I drink it. If it whines, I date it". Sounds like Mike to me.

STEAMBOAT SPRINGS I

by Charlotte Lynn and Joe Cannata

The Snow Gods smiled on Steamboat in January, dumping 22 feet of snow on the mountain! Our Valentine's Day trip arrived to a 90 inch base and sunny skies, near perfect conditions which lasted all week. After a long travel day we were greeted Saturday at our condos by the resort reps with a wine & cheese party, photo ID Lift Ticket/TSC ID Badge and orientation. Our tireless ATC, Joe Cannata shepherded the rental group over and back before we were all ready to head out for the evening Winter Carnival Event.

We hit the slopes early Sunday morning. Shortly thereafter, Carolyn Burris was seen body surfing down a double black diamond slope. Maybe she should have taken the mountain tour for easy runs first? Among the early and late arrivals staying off-site was Linda Cizek who searched the mountain all day for any of our group. We finally connected with all six at the condos after an outstanding day of skiing or schooling (in the case of Juanita Allen from Virginia, on her first western mountain trip) then headed back up the mountain for a spectacular sunset gondola ride and the TSC Welcome Party.

On Monday, Cathy Sharp was spotted in her panda hat all over the mountain but some of us quit skiing early for the full afternoon and evening events. Joe Cannata led a venturesome group to the scenic Strawberry Park Hot Springs. Among the group were Jim Rinke, E. J. Boudreaux, Mike Williford, Sandy Williams and Sandra McCunis. We heard there was a photo of a certain lady in bathing suit and ski boots but it must be a rumor or Sandra paid someone off. Fun photos aside, all agreed it was a great afternoon. After dark skinny dipping was allowed. Picture that in ski boots! Meanwhile back at the condos, Bill Simmons and Maynard Nussbaum were helping heat the Venison Chile and Bean Burrito supper for our first party. TC's condo mates, Frances McAllister and Charles Smith from Coleman, were ready helpers to haul the pots to the party room and clean up afterward. Many thanks to all the members who were ready to pitch in on every occasion. After chowing down on the great meal and a salute to TC's better half, Alan (for cooking his prize winning recipe), we had a few door prizes. One was won by TC's daughter-in-law, Juanita Allen. After cries of fixed drawings died down, we all agreed a Space City scarf would be fine looking back up north.

We started another beautiful ski day which finally came to a close, being dubbed Black Tuesday. Designated so due to major injuries suffered by Don Molgaard and Maria dos Santos, both in Condo Six. Don spent the rest of the trip in the hospital watched over by his bride Flo. While good eggs, Kelly Morisette and Bill Clifford helped Maria get around with her leg brace problems. The rest of us were checking out our bruises and soaking sore muscles. At least we think that's what Kathy Young was doing with twelve guys in the hot tub.

Wednesday evening was the Torchlight Parade down the mountain. It started at 7:00, over at 7:02 P.M. We could have used some of those folks in the club races. The short trip arrived in the afternoon and it was a great night for SCSC'ers to hit downtown or the condos for gourmet cooking. We hear Gary Smith served a great meal to condomates Carol Griffin, David and Cathy Sharp, Louis and Reen Catanzaro. Other great cooks were Maynard Nussbaum, aka as dear Dr. Foot, who dispensed suggestions and sympathy for many blisters and boot rubs. The Welkey brothers, Jon and Joseph, were also busy in the kitchen most evenings. The grateful and well breakfasted group in the TC's condo had Charles (Mr.Mom) Smith to thank.

Thursday we were up bright and early for the races and mountain barbecue. While silver medalists, Joe Giammarco, Leslie Cashio, Reen Catanzaro, Bill Landfield, Charles Smith, Howard Schoenike, and Alex Potter were all smiles, there were a few dazed folks like Andrew Cashio and Keith Huber saying, "Only a Bronze?" Also noted was the strange head banging by Rick Kivch who just missed a medal in spite of a great effort. The rest of us were just glad we got down alive and if we got a few points, so much the better. Our evening started with a bang as both trips gathered for a pizza party and "Show us your Heart" costume contest. Some of the prize winners were Dave Sharp in his Mr. Right boxer shorts over red long-johns, Dave Pullin, the Dirty Old Man in red long johns and Howard Schoenike, alluring??? in a red satin bikini. Winnie Pullin was a knockout in a red outfit similar to Howard's. Our hard working race director Kevin King got in late from his race work, dressed much more sedately. However, we heard later that he had his gold and silver medals pinned under his PJ's for the rest of the trip.

Friday came much too quickly. Kevin King must have gone over the edge. After his gold, he traded his skis for a board all day with TC Charlotte Lynn trailing behind on skis as witness that he really is pretty good on the thing. Alex Potter had been mowed down on Thursday on a family run, but thought it was minor until roomie Jerry Smith insisted he have it checked at the hospital.

Seems he had suffered a broken leg and was forced to miss our TSC Awards Banquet Friday night. Flo Molgaard joined us for dinner and Chris Goll dedicated his gold medal to Don, (still being missed by all) and presented it to Flo to take back to him. After stuffing our faces on Barbecue (again??) we were delighted to accept a large, flashy second place trophy and enjoy the wonderful starlight ride back down the gondola. Having had about all the fun we could stand, we cheerfully packed up our skis (while your TC was mumbling something about a *@@ trophy on her lap all the way to Houston) and prepared for departure early Saturday. Except for the purple heart pack, this had been a truly great ski week. Many thanks to such a great group of trip members; the super mountain and sunny skies would not have made such a great trip without all of you.

Photo Contest

by Joanie Osbourn

SCSCer's aimed for the March photo contest! The carefully selected panel of judges (everyone that attended the March meeting) voted by secret ballots.

First place photo for SCSC Ski Trips was submitted by Lee Swords, while Eric Prentis' entry ran a close second. Pat Woods' portrait of his son came in first and Don Crabtree's portrait was second. Don Crabtree's picture won first in the Miscellaneous category and Lee Swords' entry won second place. Joe Loe's great scenery photo was selected for first place with Don's (again) taking second. Don (for real) took first and second place ribbons in the Still Life category. Take a guess for "Best of Show" - Don Crabtree's "Biker" photo. Honorable mention went to Joanne Fore, Kathleen Fowler, and Bruce Kilgore. Who entered Don Crabtree's mug shot in the Still Life Section?

"V" Word Testimonial

by Fred Arbuckle

This article is for all of you out there in Space City Ski Club but especially for the new members. It's about that dry subject that gets kicked around in the Sitzmarke every once in awhile. It's about the people at the monthly meetings and happy hours that always seem to be constantly bugging people. It's about the dreaded "V" word, volunteering. All of you know that SCSC is run by volunteers and all of you have benefited in more ways than you can imagine from the efforts of those volunteers. Every meeting, every activity, every ski trip is there through the direct effort of an individual or individuals that have given some of their time and energy to help the ski club to be the organization it is today. I wish to speak about an aspect of this that many of you may not have thought about. Volunteering is fun!

Yeah, I know what you're thinking. Here comes the old sales pitch. Drag out the usual homilies and mix them with copious amounts of guilt. Push those hot buttons and try to shame somebody into grudgingly volunteering for something. Ain't gonna do that!

I used to feel the same way about volunteering as most of you do. I say "most of you" because I usually see the same faces over and over when something needs to be done. But consider this (especially you new members who don't really know a lot of us yet)—you're passing up a great opportunity. Let me tell you a little story.

When I joined SCSC (not all that many years ago), I was amazed at the number of people that attended the monthly meetings. Members would come up, check out my red name tag, and ask how I was doing and was I having a good time. Great! "Fun group of people", I thought. Then I went to a Happy Hour. Everybody was standing around in groups having a great time. I tried to join in the discussions but found that the only group I had anything in common with was the little knot of other "newbys" standing around with nothing to do. It was suggested that I needed to go on a ski trip so I would have something in common with some of the other members but, as it turned out, it was to be a long time before I was able to go on a trip.

I was shanghaied, set up, targeted; someone asked me to volunteer to help with an activity, a bowling tournament. Next came a bus trip to a vineyard, then I helped with the volunteer party that I had been invited to—because I had volunteered. I met so many wonderful people that I never lacked for friends in the ski club again. Also, for some strange reason, my acne cleared up, my clothes were brighter, my smile was whiter, and I became immensely popular. Okay, I'm kidding about the last part. But that's what volunteering for an SCSC function can do for you. Don't see an activity that interests you? Plan an activity that you think others would like and offer to run it. You'd be amazed how receptive people are to your ideas—especially if you're the one who volunteered to do it.

Your volunteerism doesn't go unrewarded. There's a party held each year to say thanks for helping. Only volunteers are invited. Hope to see you at the next one.

BIG SKY

by Barb Ehrlich

The Big Sky extravaganza was off to a great start with all flights on time. Upon arrival at Bozeman airport, we met the first part of our non-Texan contingency, Wayne Benos from Ohio. Next on the agenda was precision bus loading and a quick grocery stop. Were those 10 boxes Mike Ruthermund, Robert Todd, Rod Hope, and Ty Smith carried on board full of food or beer? Our group was not complete until midnight with the surprise arrival of Dave Whitehead and Susan Bullen from the U.K.

The first day of ski in/ pummel out, Sandy Brokhausen mistook the pummel lift for a chair. Of course she was not alone, other skiers including Ky Griffin were seen napping under the pummel lift. Our Mad Hatter dinner party drew some fancy head gear. Low budget clown entertainment was provided by Jim McLaughlin who also helped Charlene Fleming design the perfect hat. Sandy and Ed Brochausen actually read the pretrip information and made hats suitable only for Bourbon Street. Helen Schilling was more into a deck of special playing cards than hats. Few dinner guests realized the plain canned spaghetti was saved by chef Jorge (George) Flournoy and Jeff Warren who made an emergency trip to the store to buy additives demanded by the chef.

Dr. Grant Fowler required medical "attention" for his bruised buttocks from all his condomates: Sandy Brockhausen, Billie Nowa, and Charlene Flemings. How come he needed daily reevaluation from the ladies?

Snowmobiling in Yellowstone was a blast! Indy 500 Rod Hope and Mike Ruthermund maxed out at how many mph? Maureen Irwin was a great tour guide, if you could keep up. George Flournoy and Robert Todd abandoned Billie Nowak temporarily to commune with nature. Jim McLaughlin, Lynda Henry, Barb Ehrlich, Marsha Lutz, Maureen Irwin, Gary Quinn, Sharla Gibson, Susan Bullen (Indy 600 Dave Whitehead was lost on the trail) inhaled lunch in 10 minutes and still missed the 1:15 Old Faithful. Hanging around Marsha almost got us arrested for harassment of wild life. Of course, back at the condos Lis Kinne and Nancy Meier also contended with wild life, as Bison Bill spent every night with them.

New and innovative skiing techniques were developed by our group. Ron Koval skied halfway down the slope on his back. He claims Gwen Bremer attacked him? Nancy Meier fell face first off the lift. She claims George and Keith Kirkman pushed her. Marsha Lutz's only fall of the week was in front of Clear Lake ski club. Wayne Benos and Tim McNamara collided (they claim on purpose), to impress Sharla. Alex Bunsch skied all seven days and has no one to blame but himself. Art Kelly and Linda Snyder were concerned about warm feet. Linda, the electric cowgirl, has battery operated warmers. Art, the environmentalist, recycles his warmers. I guess no one told him they only work one day. Wednesday evening was game night. Tim McNamara, Charlene Fleming, and Nancy Meier, Maureen Irwin (with the help of Grant Fowler's cheating) beat Barb Ehrlich, Mike Fleming, Ed and

Sandy Brohausen at Pictionary.

The Finale of this great week began Apres ski with a pub crawl. The Crazy Austrian Brothers brought out the talent in our group. Sharla Gibson missed her calling as a chorus line dancer. Debbie Warren's mom forgot to teach her it's not polite to point, which landed her on stage to show off extraordinary pig grunting and yodeling talents during the show. Next stop: MR Hummers where one of these name sake specialty drinks awaited each of us. Passing on MR Hummers, Bruce Bain, Gary Pfeffer, Wayne Benos, and Tim McNamara opted for the movies up at the Lodge. The soldiers left standing after Hummers found themselves dancing at the Whiskey Jack.

On our trip home, Hilton Schorre slept the whole way, he forgot his ear plugs and couldn't sleep through his roommates snoring. All in all a great time was had by all with only one casualty, Art Kelly's broken shoulder. We braved the cold and encountered all the wildlife we could handle in a week.

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP AND RELEASE OF LIABILITY

I certify and recognize that SCSC is a non-profit organization, run entirely by volunteers who have no special training or experience at conducting trips or other activities and I do not rely on the expertise of any director or officer or their appointed representatives in conducting trips or activities. I am aware that SCSC carries no insurance nor maintains a reserve for liability.

I wish to participate on this trip or activity because SCSC provides me with the economics and discounts of group purchasing power, social interaction with compatible individuals, and does all the planning and reservation work for me.

In consideration of the above, I, for myself, my heirs, executors and assignees do hereby release and discharge SCSC, its directors, officers and any other person appointed by them, from all claims, damages, demands or actions whatsoever in any manner arising from my participation on this trip or activity. I agree that I am solely responsible for my personal safety and conduct. I also agree to indemnify and hold harmless SCSC, its directors, officers and agents, or contractors from any loss, cost, or expense, incurred by, or attributable in any way to me, in connection with this trip or activity.

I also certify that I have read, that I understand, and that I agree to abide by, all the Bylaws and Standing Rules of SCSC. I understand that payments made for trips or activities may not be refundable, in whole, or in part, and that all payments will be handled in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Bylaws and Standing Rules.

I hereby appoint SCSC, its directors, officers and agents, as my agent to perform all acts and to enter into, any, and all contracts as may be deemed desirable in connection with this trip or activity. I understand SCSC acts only as coordinator and accepts no responsibility for the services of any person, ski area, resort, airline, motor coach, hotel or any organization whatsoever rendering any of the services or accommodations being offered on this trip or activity. Trip and activity fees are based on current tariffs and are subject to change without notice. SCSC accepts no responsibility, in whole or in part, for any delays, delayed departures or arrivals, missed plane or other carrier connections, loss, damage, or injury, to person or property, mechanical defect or failure of any nature, however caused, or for any substitution of hotels or common carrier, with or without notice, or for any additional expenses occasioned thereby.
