FINAL GIVEAWAY AT FEBRUARY MEETING

HEAD OF THE LIFTLINE

BY TOM MERCER

I hope the holiday season was good to you and you didn't "bring the New Year in too forcefully."

With the start of '85, we begin the heart of our ski season. Texas Ski Week - Traditional is this month and we are taking about 120 skiers. I want to encourage as many of you as possible on these three trips to ski for your club in the Cup Race. Each person who completes the course will gain at least one point for the club. So let's go get this one.

Volunteers are needed to chair some of the upcoming activities. Contact Rudy ASAP.

We gave $500 worth of ski trip credits at the last meeting. A list of the winners is in this issue - somewhere. At the January meeting, the remaining $250 will be given away so be there to win...

The votes are in on the By-Law changes and the results are also found in this issue. A thank you to those of you who cared enough to vote.

Everything seems to be proceeding smoothly ahead - my thanks to the officers and their volunteers.

See you at the next meeting...

SCSC CASINO PARTY

by Lynn Burch

The annual SCSC Casino Party was held on November 17 and we want to thank the 129 people who came and let the rest of the club know what a good time they missed.

A special thanks goes to T. J. Lassiter and Tina Kendall for the great job they did in putting the casino party together and getting the prizes. Thanks also to all the many volunteers that worked the tables and were bartenders and waitresses.

The following is a list of the prizes that were donated and the winners. We especially want to thank the businesses that donated the prizes because without them we could not have the casino party.

What can I say except when you are number three - WE MUST TRY HARDER.

At the TSC's fall meeting held in Houston on December 1st, Bob Olsen, the Texas Ski Council's National Representative, pointed out that neither of the National recreational skiing organizations, who may have merged, has proven to be a friend of the recreational skier. Bob suggests that you check closely before joining any organization that claims to represent the U. S. Ski Team. Before donating money that may or may not actually help the U. S. Ski Team, check with Bob Olsen or a SCSC club officer.

Our deepest sympathy to Kathryn Bellis Ferguson and the family of Stan Ferguson. Stan passed away December 19, 1984. Stan was a long-time Space City member and a great friend who will be missed by all of us who knew him. In lieu of cards or flowers, Kathryn asked that donations be made to the Cancer Research Fund of Methodist Hospital. Donations may be mailed to:

THIS TIME IT WAS COZUMEL, MEXICO FOR THE 2nd ANNUAL SCSC SCUBA TRIP

by Layna Adams and Lynn Danhauser

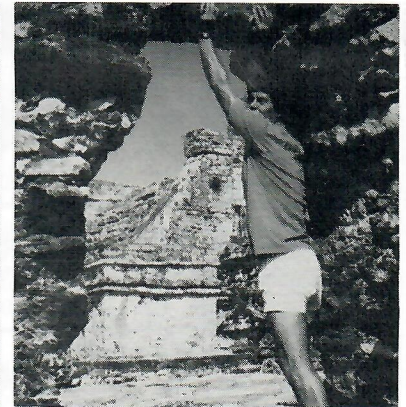

On October 24, fifteen enthusiastic people departed for the sunny skies and turquoise beaches of Cozumel. Tom Brunn, however, almost didn't make the trip because his flight was late coming in from Dallas.

The first night out found us all at the famed Carlos N' Charlie's where we tried our luck at catching wine in our mouths (and laps) from a blow flask the waiter skillfully aimed at each of us. The next day, Bob Goggins, Dick Howard, David Donahue, and most of the group went diving hoping to catch a glimpse of mysterious sea creatures. They could have stayed afloat, though, since Lynn Danhauser and Linda Licarione saw a giant turtle while snorkeling near shore.

Billie Nowak tested her newly developed skills of wind surfing as did a few other daredevils. George Hirasaki was seen several times speeding, once riding around the island on a motor bike and every morning running with Diane Yarberry and Ray Davis before the rest of the divers even saw sunlight.

A few ventured to take the ferry to the mainland for a bus ride and a tour of Tulum. Even flying fish were seen and that's not tequila talking. Our own guide, the dive master's wife (who was married at the ruins where women were offered to the gods) served as our interpreter and brought us safely (but quickly) back to the ferry before the rain started.

After dancing one night away, several of the group were rumored to have gone skinny dipping while drinking several bottles of wonderful "Margarita's in the white bottle with the green label and the white flower." No one knows for sure who was there so early in the morning, but Rick's son

Brad Wilkins certainly found it hard to wake up the next day as did a few other sleepy heads.

Charles Goodrich and Rick Wilkins rented a jeep to tour the island the last day and disturbed about a hundred vultures at one end of the island (or so they say).

Dana Rank began to worry about re-entering the good ol' USA because she had no identification and Layna Adams never wants to see another Mexican Eye Doctor (ouch, pain).

A lot of sun, fun, excitement, and scuba diving was packed into 4 nights and 3 days. It rained the 4th day so the pool party ended up in the room watching TV. No one seemed to mind since we needed time to catch our breath before we faced packing and the return home.

Tequila talked once again at the post-trip party in Houston's Cafe Adobe. Thoughts turned toward planning the third scuba trip possibly at Belize, Nassau, Puerto Vallarta, or a return to Grand Cayman. Let your officers know your choice and if you are not a diver, take lessons now so you can join us.

VAIL AT THANKSGIVING.

If the Thanksgiving at Vail was any indication of how the other trips will be in '85, club members can look forward to a great time. Vail met all the expectations: decent snow, good lodging, great activities, and long lift lines on Friday and Saturday.

The group was so dedicated that in spite of coming at different times and from four different locations around the U. S. (Bob Marwin from Illinois, Keith Eastin from Washington, D. C., Jan Potts and Pat Lee from Denver, and the dedicated early bird group consisting in part of Anne Benefield, Bill Brooks, Roy Caviness, Karen Friedsam, Joe Murphy, et al from Houston), everybody made it. Lauren Boyd lost her luggage claim checks within five minutes and Mike Halberg's luggage went to Florida. Marlene Vail (who chose this trip for obvious reasons) thought she had problems when nobody would sit next to her on the plane. A completely packed flight eventually got her a companion.

Carol (ATC) and Graham Barnes were the hosts of the more comfortable but bathroomless small bus while the crowded big bus plowed straight through to Lionshead. Hall Goodson made three in a seat popular in the back of the bus. The Holms and the Ballards lead the sleeping contingent in a heavy chorus of snoring. Check-in was a hassle as usual with a large group and Tania Andrasko, Dave Burris, Rhonda Ross, etc. were very understanding of a last minute change in their condo that was discovered upon arrival.

After a warm-up day of skiing and a TSC Happy Hour in the Marriott Disco, a large group went to a private Thanksgiving dinner. Sara Green, Calvin Doody, Trish Page, Geoff Darby, Linda Hall and Bill Owen enjoyed the dinner and especially enjoyed the "unpretentious brown wine." The company one keeps makes the mood and Sy Liebergot kept the mood light by teaching Bill and Carol Fleming several tricks with spoons.

We did ski in great style. Barb Roberts, Jody Moher, and Georgana Repal conquered the green slopes with minor difficulty. Hilton Schorre won an acrobatic award when he failed to stay on the trail on a catwalk. The American Yahoo School of Skiing was lead by Bob Davis closely followed by Bob (TC) Frazier, and the trip's fastest woman, who can also ski, Melissa Barham. None of that smooth European style for these patriotic skiers. Marilyn Davis would have joined this group except she is expecting with the next SCSC Yahoo World Cup racer.

Whoever convinced Glenn Bishop, Ann Batten (who was spying in preparation for the Banff trip), Bill Kirk, Siri Duecker, and Linda Hensley that Jules Glogovisan and Bob Olsen knew their way around Vail did the best snow job - 90 minutes to find a restaurant 5 minutes from their lodging. Barb Beggs and Trish Page really enjoyed dancing and collecting phone numbers at the awards dance Saturday night. Christie Bruke won the award as the gourmet breakfast cook. Bob Porter switched racing bibs with Scott Peterson so Scott could win a bronze medal for him. The biggest nerve award went to Phil Unruh who kept trying to turn around to talk to his girlfriend Kenda Linden while she sat on his shoulders at the hot tub party.

George Hirasaki did a great job as trip race director and as the top male racer of the entire TSC group. The following people won silver medals: George Hirasaki, Bob Marwin, Fred Kahrs, Tom Mercer, and Bob Olsen; bronze medals: Dale Allbritton, Melissa Barham, Calvin Doody, Bob Frazier, Pam Holder, Scott Peterson, Ed Cain, George Hein, Keith Eastin and Jules Glogovisan. Glenn Bishop and Charles Goodrich get an attaboy for qualifying for a bronze, but being disqualified due to poor recording keeping by Vail. Bob Davis gets two attaboys for racing in the 20-29 age group instead of his correct age group where he would have qualified for a bronze. The best falls went to Sy Liebergot and Sherry Lewis. We missed their usual medals. A great job to all the other racers who participated. A condolence to Roger McKillip who spent 3 hours in lift lines to get there and did not make it.

As the saying goes, "A rolling skier gathers no moss." We had our share of shakers and movers and nobody gathered any moss. It was a fun trip and would have probably attracted 80 to 100 club members if there had been room at the September sign-up.

TEXAS SKI WEEK RACERS SHOULD HEED THE FOLLOWING....

STARTING TECHNIQUE

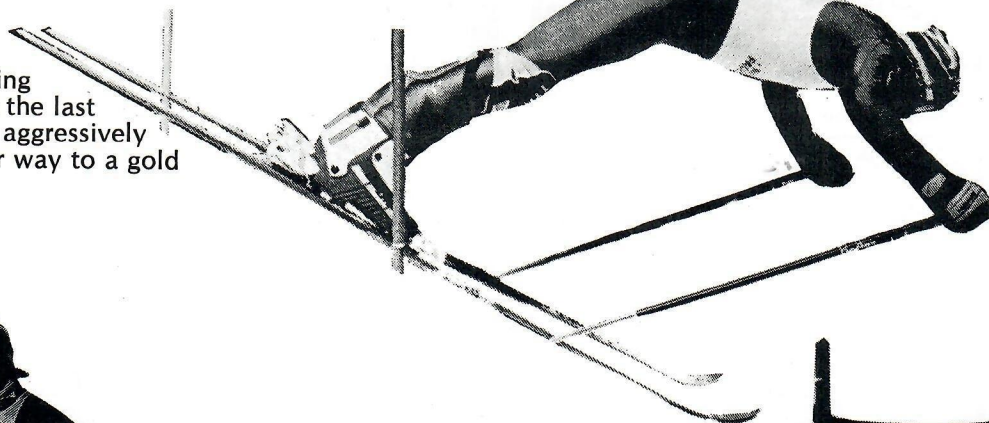

Slide both skis under the start wand until your feet are 12-15 inches behind the wand. Your skis should be pointing directly toward the first gate. Plant both poles firmly in the snow on the downhill side of the wand. With your weight forward and eyes on the first gate, wait for the word, "GO."

"GO!" You want to move your upper body out and down the hill before opening the wand and starting the timer. Still looking at the first gate; let your upper body fall forward supported by your arms and poles.

Pull yourself forward and out of the start with a strong pole action, dragging your feet through the timing wand at the last possible moment. Then skate or pole aggressively toward the first gate. You are on your way to a gold NASTAR medal!

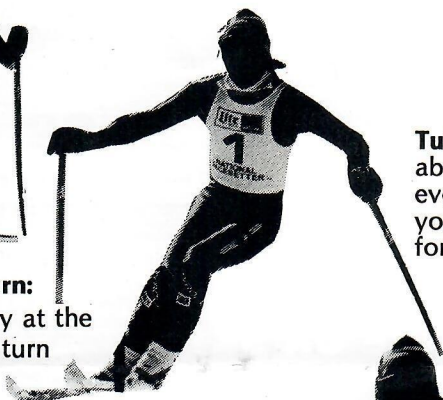

TURNING TECHNIQUE

Starting Your Turn:

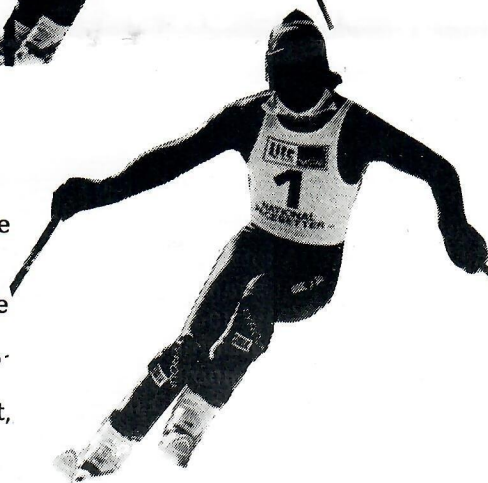

Don't ski directly at the gate; start your turn early, above and wide of the gate.

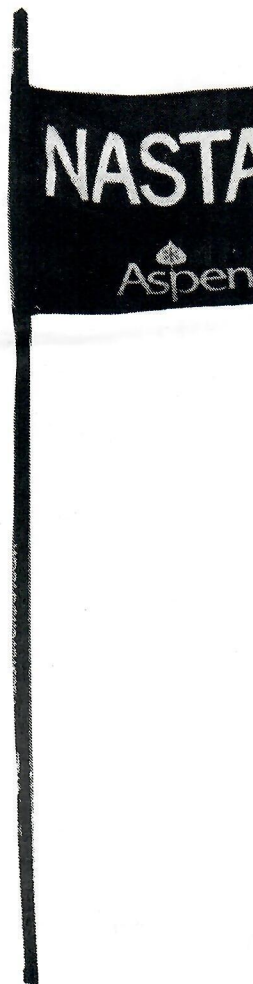

Turning Above the Gate: By initiating your turn above the gate, you will have room to make a long, even, and smooth turn. By taking this "high" line, you will be carrying more speed and still feel comfortable.

In the Fall-line: This is the toughest part of the turn due to fallaway terrain.

As you approach the gate your skis are pointed straight down the hill. To maintain control and avoid sliding at this point, get lower, putting pressure on your outside (downhill) ski.

The Next Turn: As you pass the gate, you should already be finished with your turn. Looking ahead to the next gate, you want to be lined up and in position to make another great turn.
