BY TOM MERCER

It's hard to believe the 1983-1984 season has come to an end. I'd like to express my appreciation to the out-going officers on another excellent year. I look forward to their counsel during the upcoming year. Few people realize the amount of work required by these officers to provide the quality year we enjoyed during the 1983-84 year.

I believe the upcoming officers will be equal to the task and will continue to bring quality activities and ski trips.

During the next year we would like you to become involved in your club. Remember, it's a volunteer organization and without your help the year would be very difficult to complete. The club is always receptive to new ideas. A classic example is the campout. The idea began high on a slope in the Colorado Mountains and we've been doing it for eight semi-annual years (ask Sy about the whole story). Give Rudy Guerrero a call, he's ready to get you involved in this club (See ad elsewhere in this issue).

This 1984-1985 ski season should be one of the better planned seasons. Dick Howard has just spent a week in Colorado talking with assorted areas about the upcoming season. We will be bringing you areas in which you expressed interest from information gleaned from the ski survey. We will try a couple more short trips and try to time our Spring break trip so our teachers can make plans to come along. For those people who sent in the ATC/TC request form and were not chosen -don't go away -we still need you!

I would like to leave you with a couple of thoughts: Get to know your officers; we will be needing your help. There are all sorts of areas that can be improved and all sorts of jobs to be done. If you have an idea on how to do something different or better bring it forward. GET INVOLVED!! We are all trying to make this a club we can enjoy and be proud of.

Remember, running a club is 95% people and 5% economics. See you at the Follies! ...

A SPECIAL THANK YOU TO THE 1983-1984 BOARD OF DIRECTORS

One of the most important volunteer positions in SCSC is as a replacement for a vacancy on the Board of Directors. We would like to thank Easy Thayer, Barry Kumins and Jim Plummer for their continued support, sage advice, and almost perfect attendance at so many Executive Committee and Board meetings this year. You, along with the other members of the Board have been a tremendous help. A tip of the ski cap to you and thanks to you all.

THANKS, WINKIE!

This issue is out on time only because of your help.

FLATLANDS WINS TEXAS SKI CUP

The Flatlands Ski Club of Midland-Odessa won the Texas Ski Cup as a result of the new formula which combines the results of all five TEXAS SKI COUNCIL trips for this season. The results:

FIRST	Flatlands	73 points
SECOND	Cowtown	68 points
THIRD	Space City	63 points

As you know, Space City is the only club to vote against the new rules. SCSC was 2nd at Keystone, 2nd at Sun Valley, 2nd at Crested Butte, 1st at Heavenly Valley and 2nd at Breckenridge. However, we finished THIRD overall.

The new rules favor a club that takes the minimum number of participants on Council trips. SCSC took more skiers to Sun Valley (143) than Flatlands took ALL season (100). I will try to get the rules a bit more realistic at the May Council meeting.

Jim McIntyre

COMING EVENT GUD Party

(Geographically Undesirable)

TO BE HELD IN AUGUST
WATCH THIS SPACE
FOR FUTURE
ANNOUNCEMENTS

Each year, SCSC is fortunate to have many volunteers who work on the club's fun activities, as well as the business aspects of our operations. At the April General Meeting, several of those volunteers who chaired or worked on a continuing committee throughout the year were singled out for their efforts. Our many, many other volunteers for 1983-84 are listed elsewhere in this issue. We'd like to thank you all for your time and participation. Without each of you, we'd never get anything done - and certainly not have any fun!

By Elizabeth Braun

It is said that sooner or later every skier must ski the "Big One" and from March 3rd to the 10th, thirty-six Space City Ski Club members did just that. Arriving early at the Sojourner Inn in Teton Village gave George Hirasaki and Andrew Johns a chance to check out the slopes and give us a report at the first happy hour.

They say that it's one mountain but it's really two, Rendezvous Mountain with 4,139 vertical feet of skiing and Apres Vous Mountain with 2,139 feet. In the old days the 2.4 mile tram ride was more for gathering horror stories about the steepness or the unpacked snow than to ski. But not anymore. Everybody heads for the tram as it is now the nucleus of Jackson Hole's lift system.

Unfortunately our group just happened to hit the week that it closed for three days for maintenance repairs. This just sent the hot-doggers into the trees and unmarked paths to get their thrills. Peb Rock not only got his thrills but also an idea for a new style in ski jackets. He's calling it the R.A.W. (Rip-A-Way) jacket. It prevents getting hung on tree limbs.

Mark Erb and Greg King spent one of the closed-down-tram days snowmobiling at Signal Mountain. From the snapshots they showed us at the Post-trip party it looked like Mark and Greg thought they were on the moon flying over craters with snowmobiles that were meant to be ridden on pathways only. At least that's what the man told them when they rented them. Since Greg King had lived in Jackson for a year he knew some of the "locals" and the hot spots to visit.

George Hirasaki and Fred Kahrs just couldn't resist the temptation of skiing the slopes of untracked powder that surrounded Jackson

Hole. They spent a day helicopter skiing. Fred Kahrs had such a unique style that the guide captured it on film. Maybe we'll see him on the cover of SKI magazine. And George Hirasaki got real good at "digging for oil" (doing head plants) because of his skis. He just couldn't keep his tips up!

Rodney and Bonnie Hughes were really interested in improving their skiing technique this trip so they practiced and practiced and then decided to see if all the time and effort was worth it. They arranged to have an hour of video taping and with either Rodney's or Bonnie's smile they also got the tape of the Space City Club members Nastar race. Well, after seeing the tape, they decided that next year they are going to forget about practicing and just have a good time. They did bring the Nastar tape to the Post-trip party and that, along with Margie Fanett's movies of the races, made our big event look like comedy hour.

At least the early racers got a chance to see some of the other wipe outs like John Cook who never made it to the second gate. I sure hope Pixie Cook caught it from the sidelines.

On the whole the group did just fine. Out of 25 club members who raced, 15 of them received medals. Patrick Snell, Greg King, George Budd, Diana Altrichter, Art Camero, Robert Copple, Peb Rock, Jim Guild, Mark Erb and Andrew Johns all received bronze medals. Fred Kahrs, Jim Plummer, George Hirasaki, Mike Gay and John Cook received silver medals.

Midway through the week the group spent a day at an intimate resort known as Grand Targhee. It is a little off the beaten path (45 miles "over the hill" on the Teton's west side), uncrowded with ultimate snow conditions. The snow was just what you hear about, talk about and dream about - endless dry, light powder. Well, it was that way most of the day until the sun turned the mountain into a giant "slurpee."

Diana Altrichter lead Ruth Billings, Art Camero, Patrick Snell and Ron Rambin on a warmup program for the Nastar races the next day. In the first event she had them point their skis over a ledge and practice their starts as she yelled "point those skis down hill!" Then she had them form a human Nastar course where the person at the top of the mountain skis in and around the other people who are pretending to be poles and then they become the last pole.

For after skiing pleasure there was always a rush for a space in the jacuzzi. Since Lydia Boada never seemed to have a problem finding space we had her and Dick Howard serve the drinks at our "Hot Tub Happy Hour." Jim Plummer screened the other hotel guests allowing only females to join our group. With 17 males and only 9 females he desperately wanted to increase his odds for getting a date that night.

Teton Village is not known for its night-life, that is, until Robert Copple, Art Camero, John Cook and Fred Kahrs came along. They serenaded the Mangy Moose, The Alphenhof and any other place they found Space City Ski Club members.

For the real action you have to head for the Town of Jackson just 12 miles away. Judy Hays, "I hope Donna Hahus told you what you missed by going home on the early bus." It's not every day you get to sit in a real western saddle at the famous Cowboy Bar.

Besides skiing and night life there are some incredible areas to visit while in the Jackson area. One of them is Yellowstone National Park. The travel brochures proclaim and now so does Donna Berglund, Dorothy Symmonds, Debbie and Jim Lockery, Vic Lucas, Ray Davis, Roberta and Ron Rambin, Nancy Everts and Al Pruett that "a trip on a 10 passenger enclosed and heated snowcoach vehicle is a once-in-a-lifetime experience." The group had the opportunity to see Old Faithful's billowing mushroom cloud of ice crystals and vapors and a whole day of spectacular landscape decorated by elk, deer, Bighorn sheep and wintering birds.

The National Elk Refuge is another magnificent area to visit while in Jackson. You can see the elk as you drive into town but if you really want to get a closeup view its best to go through the herd on a horse drawn sleigh. Nancy Everts and Al Pruett spent one day doing just that and I think that Al got a photo of just about every elk in the refuge.

We had such a nice group of ski club members on our trip that two elk and one bear decided to come home to Houston with us (see photo). Since Stan Ferguson spent most of his skiing vacation catching up on old-time movies and recovering from altitude sickness he gets to be first on the list for the next Jackson Hole Ski Trip.

HEAVENLY VALLEY I DEVIL OF A TIME

By Lydia Miller

The participants on the Heavenly Valley I trip were promised a "devil of a time," and, boy, did they get it. The chartered Air California flight to Lake Tahoe featured a champagne-and-croissants brunch and one naive stewardess working her first charter flight. (She really got an education!) Edith Lewis and her gang of anonymous hands helped serve until FAA regulations were enforced.

But the flight was nothing compared to arrival and check-in at the High Sierra Hotel. After a good deal of raucous confusion, rooms were assigned and luggage delivered. Bonnie Lloyd's makeup case spent the night in some dark corner; and Lydia Miller's luggage didn't make its appearance until late Monday night. (Probably worth it, though. The hotel management outfitted her with skiwear, took her to the slopes and back in a limosine, and apologized with a bottle of champagne!)

Monday was a great day of skiing, enjoyed by all. But Tuesday brought the blizzard! Several people headed for Squaw Valley - and spent the time totally apres-ski. For lack of something better to do Glenn Bishop, Anne Batten, Bob McClammy, Barbara Sepulvado and Karl and Lotti Gautschi checked out some condos.

Another group went to Kirkwood and faced the same conditions - with unpleasant results. Tina Kendall fell, injuring the ligaments in her left leg, and TC John Galloway broke his right hand (which he didn't realize until a week after returning to Houston). Commiserating with the wounded were Joe Murphy, Sandy Chupik and Bobbie and Jeff Proctor.

Of course the outdoor hot tub at the hotel got plenty of business following the return of these stouthearted souls; and it was there that Greg Dupuis won his distinguished Hairiest Chest in the Hot Tub Award.

Although Wednesday started poorly, most skiers were on the slopes by noon for the hamburgers-and-beer party at Ski Meadows. Snowflake-flavored hamburgers were enjoyed by Dick and Mary K. Fruth, Sally Hintz, and Cindy Chandler, while Jeri Rotenberg, Randy Butler and Cindy Slack decided wine was a better warmer-upper. Lewis Metzger, Brenda Bennett, Susan Goolsby, and a couple of unidentifiabes scarfed down their food and took to the slopes again.

Thursday was supposed to be Race Day, but conditions caused them to be postponed until Friday. But, oh boy, the wait until Friday was worth it! Race director Mike Boland, aided by Steve Peters, did a super job at the top of the course, while Brenda Boland, Jana Peters, Roy Caviness, et al, cheered at the bottom.

Space City did not race until 2:30 p.m. - the last group of a total of 400 racers that day. Just ask what the course was like! But it was obviously good for some - Bob Goggins won a Bronze and Doug Van Dorsten won the only Silver medal awarded - on rented skis no less. (His brand new skis had been stolen the first day on the slopes!) Andy Fitzpatrick finished the race, but not before he almost took out a wandering teenager who was taking a shortcut across the race course.

Saturday, St. Patrick's Day, was a celebration on Canyon Run. Joe Murphy outfitted Bill Brooks, Linda Licarione, Layna Adams, and other SCSC'ers with green streamers, balloons and Irish flags and led them down the mountain. And who WAS that Green Leprechaun tagging along with them?

Saturday night at the TSC Awards Dance came the big news. Space City had won the Spring Classic with almost double the number of points as its nearest competitor; and Doug Van Dorsten won the award as the Fastest Male Skier. Joining in the wild cheering were Fred Knopp, Mike and Karen Clements, John Boynton, Kathy Faver, Charlie Epps and Mariane Pearce. Diane Goldgehn was also celebrating her birthday that evening, and was helped by Gail Bernstein, Ken Metzger and the other 700 TSCers in attendance. Our thanks go to the TSC sponsors -Delta, Solomon and Coors - for a great time!

The return Sunday was uneventful until we got to Houston. When last seen at 11:30 p.m. Joanne Palladini, Albert Mumma and Bud and Norma Dealy were still trying to capture suitcases!

But the trip was super! The casinos certainly kept Randy Fitzpatrick entertained and David Nugent seemed quite taken with the lounge show at Harrah's. The Wayne Newton Show was enjoyable, the food in Lake Tahoe was great, and the skiing and racing were sensational!!

TELLURIDE A/K/A SKIER'S SHANGRI-LA

By Peb Rock

In mid-February 32 skiers returned from what was said to have been one of the more satisfying trips they'd taken. It was a nice discovery for all but 7, who saw fit to return to the paucity of lift lines, fantastic mountain and hospitable townspeople.

Dolly Linehan and Mary K. Patterson must have made the discovery with their first time on skis noting the runs with a rating of 5.9 on a scale of 6. For starters, Jean Ubico's eyes were not open as she appeared just in time to board for departure; who says you can't drive on instruments?

Things were well under way with the bus ride from the airport at Montrose when Ike Hoffman gave the driver the choice of the nearest fire plug or a messy bus and after a few more of these stops, it was a relieved bus driver as well as Ike who made it to Telluride.

Merlyn Harger was sartorially resplendent on and off the slopes, replete with serape, WWII officer's cap and Dumbo earmuffs, but most all agreed Beau Straley was the easy winner in the Jimmy Connor's "look alike" contest. If only Jimmy had a mustache. Beau says he skis left and plays right. You figure it out.

Those that dared follow found Diane Yarberry's preference for runs tended to those color coded Black.

Susie Volz, along with Susan Rock, garnered the goodies for a gala taco party for all and repeated two nights later for a lasagna feast. The latter entailed researching Bert Lary's lineage back through Oklahoma to Italy for the recipe. Was that Indian or Italian, Bert? Someone whispered he took it off the box. All were either satisfied or fooled.

What are the chances of four birthdays in the same week out of a group of 32? It happened and was noted the night of the lasagna party with a cake for Charlie Caplan, Lois Carey, Dolly Linehan and Pat Snell. All due pomp was observed with Frank Riesenbergs leading the familiar tune and accompanied on the kazoo by Trish Page. It must have been a combination of age and altitude that kept the candles from being extinguished by the four. They couldn't have been trick candles.

Sybaritic respites were taken in the hot tub by Paul Anderson, Bob Copple, Margie Fanette and Sheryl Rogers, among others. There's always someone who forgets a swimsuit.

The hot tub had to feel good after a day's workout on the slopes, the like of such as: The Plunge, Spiral Stairs and Coonskin. John Echols found a way to handle the steps by using short skis.

Talk about disorientation—Marge Bair was set to charge out sans ski pants with only long johns. That's either unfeeling or uncaring.

Among those leaving their last dollar at the Last Dollar Saloon were Beth Smith, Leon Boone, Susan and Michael Feltner. Darts, pool and hockey ball proved irresistible.

Tim Parker must have heard his wife, Belinda, mispronounce the word "Shoot!" while running the Nastar course. The smile never left Belinda's face.

The Senate, t'was learned, used to be the best lil' whorehouse in Telluride. Some atmosphere for a restaurant. Gene Holland was able to concentrate on the steak tartare, noting the differences between the Japanese and American version.

The collective feed at the Powderhouse gave Billy Carter ample opportunity to draw from his vast repertory of jokes to the appreciative attention of Tim Leising.

Sue Walker checked the moguls out at the ice rink on skates. It's got to be less tiring.

It's most likely twenty-five afficianados were added to the seven for a return to a gem (yes, they still mine) of a ski resort in SW Colorado - Telluride.

*If there is still a place in North America
Where consideration and caring still abide;
If there's a place where people still are sharing
It's Telluride.*

*If there's a mountain range more supernal
That reflects the people underneath its stride,
Quiet, scenic and eternal
It's Telluride.*

*Telluride, I'm glad I met you,
May you never change;
Laid back, magnificent and honest and noble as our San Juan mountain range.
—Sue Walker*

HEAVENLY VALLEY II HEAVENLY SKIING

By Harold Eaton

Skiers showing off their skis are Melissa Bertram, Bob Frazier, Harold Eaton, Roger Wintle, Merlyn Harger, Bob Cruse.

The bar was cozier than skiing as Cindy Chandler, Bob Frazier, Molly Fields, Terri Beaumont, Jeri Rotenberg, Edith Lewis, Janice Hagler and Joe Clarke discovered.

150 skiers showed up in time (not necessarily on time) to catch the private charter flight to South Tahoe. The croissants were great and the six cases of champagne left many light headed as we landed. The short bus trip to the High Sierra Hotel had more space used for luggage than people. (Remember the rule - Bring only what you and one porter can carry.)

The check-in was a hassle so a few people tried their luck at the slots. Eventually everyone found a suitable roommate and their luggage. SCSC had an afternoon party to help people get indoctrinated, pass out info, sign up for racing, and start partying.

Most people went skiing at Heavenly on Monday while a few tried Alpine and Kirkwood.

Tuesday's big event was for 80 people to bus to Squaw. However, Tuesday morning's weather would not cooperate. After some delay half went to Kirkwood and tried skiing in a storm. The other half went to Squaw where it was pouring rain. All except one brave soul in a garbage bag sat in the bar or shopped. They had a terrific party and snowball fight on the way home. This was all a prelude to the Texas Ski Council cocktail show with Wayne Newton.

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday were primarily at Heavenly with an outside picnic on the mountain, twice delayed races, and lots of late night partying.

On Saturday some took a second chance on Squaw which paid off with great skiing. Many just slept late and ate. Saturday night was the last chance for make or break on gambling fortunes or romances. Everybody made the plane and enjoyed an easygoing flight home. If you were expecting to see your name in this article, look at the back cover.
