SITZMARKE

ROAD RALLY RESULTS
FINAL SHOWDOWN IN BRECKENRIDGE

SUMMER ACTIVITIES UNDERWAY

HEAD OF THE LIFTLINE

BY TOM MERCER

Those members who didn't make it to the May meeting missed a fun follies. Congrats to Mo Granda and crew for a job well done.

The summer is upon us and we won't be meeting until the September rush for trips. Remember we are at the Radisson on South 59 at Sharpstown Center. Be sure to read the Sitzmarke so you can keep in touch with all the activities going on this summer.

I apologize for misleading those people who volunteered for TC and ATC positions. Last month we were still in the selection process when the Sitzmarke came out. By now the TC candidates should have been contacted and hopefully most of the ATC's have been notified.

I would like to repeat the appointments announced at the May meeting. Cindy Garrett and Bill Kirk will be our Directors of Trips and Jim McIntyre and Eric Holm will be our Texas Ski Council Representatives for the 1984-1985 season. We'll spotlight them in the July issue.

Quick notes from our Officers:

Rudy (V. P. of Programs) is looking for volunteers to chair some of the planned activities - give him a call.

Dick (V. P. of Trips) is negotiating with the airlines, bus companies and management companies for the upcoming year. He surfaces only when he needs a breath.

Jerry (V. P. of Membership) reminds us to get those membership forms in and for everyone to get a friend to join. If you aren't reading this it's because you didn't re-apply so you didn't get the June issue.

Charla (Publisher) is hard at work dealing with the publishing of our Sitzmarke. If you want to put a helping hand out, this is one area where we could use some hands to shorten the time it takes to "cut and paste" the issues.

Phyllis (Secretary) is looking for a few good volunteers for lift liners. If you are interested call Harold Eaton (he's in the book). Also don't forget to pick up some of our logo items at the summer bash and other summer activities.

Linda (Treasurer) says our May drink ticket sales just about topped our September meeting. I was wondering why everyone was having such a good time.

The Executive Council wants to wish you a very good summer. We'll see you at the Summer Bash and in September!

PRESIDENT'S COMMENTARY

A word to the newer members (0-5 years). As with any large organization, new members are often overlooked when responsibility is handed out. You may run your own company or be an organizational leader, but until you demonstrate a desire to work and the ability to complete a job within this club, we just don't give positions away.

You do not start out as a TC and rarely do you become an ATC without participating on a club sponsored ski trip. Along with that comment, comes this one - just because you were an ATC does not guarantee you will be a TC.

There are many ways to get involved in this club. Volunteering to chair an activity is one of the best ways to learn about the operations of our club and an excellent way to meet the members. Start working membership tables, helping on activities, helping officers, etc. and most of all attend the activities the club offers that interest you.

Don't just check the little box on the membership form and say: "Well, I volunteered!" Hopefully we will contact you and get you involved but many times you are overlooked. Give us a call and say "I want to do something." If we don't respond then we have a problem.

I'll say it again - "Volunteer and really get to know us!"

Mercer

RACE FEVER AND S.C.S.C. HIT BRECKENRIDGE

ANSWER: The best end-of-the-season ski trip in the history of Space City Ski Club.

QUESTION: What was the S.C.S.C. 1984 Breckenridge Ski Trip?
Perhaps it was premonition when Joe 'Darnac the Magnificent' Dar provided the answer at the pre-trip party without first knowing the question which had been sealed in an envelope, placed in a jar and hidden in a Weingarten's vegetable bin.

What was initially premonition started on the road to reality early Sunday morning, April 25 when 39 bright-eyed and bushy-tailed S.C.S.C.ers checked in at the Delta gate. Christy Burke was obviously not as bright-eyed as the rest as she strolled to the United gate ready to go to Denver. After some frantic phone calls, Christy was retrieved and joined the rest of the group who were enjoying coffee, soft drinks and fruit juices in the Delta VIP room.

After a fairly uneventful flight, the first of several experiences occurred as we loaded onto the bus in Denver and raced a snow storm to Breckenridge. During the drive the bus did its own form of breakdancing as it slid across the freeway. The fact that 'Mad' Becky Hall spilled wine on the bus driver, did not contribute to the breakdancing as much as the snow on the road did. While on the bus, Joe Peddy reviewed baseball instruction manuals while his better half, Sally Peddy, caught up on her sleep. The time on the bus was spent drinking, munching on popcorn, laughing, and praying that we would get to Breckenridge sometime that week.

Upon arrival at Beaver Run, everyone received room assignments and then proceeded to get lost for the next several hours trying to find their rooms. Dee Salinas was an early casualty, catching the dreaded beaver fever upon arrival. The Sunday evening happy hour afforded race director Sy Liebergot an opportunity to begin rallying the skiers in anticipation of race day.

Fresh snow, and plenty of it, was the first sight seen by the eager skiers Monday morning. The turnout at the first race clinic included Karen Freidsam, Dale Frisby, Becky Hall, Manuel Valle, Ted Bergeron, Lisa Smith, Debbie Bergeron, Liz Johns, Robert Copple, Margaret Norris, Sy Liebergot, Janie Dar and Joe Dar among others who spent several hours practicing race techniques and running the practice course.

After skiing halfway down the mountain, Jolene Clifton (first time skier) finally buckled her boots and found skiing the last half of the mountain much easier. After four lift mishaps, Beverly Crawford (also a first time skier) found downhill skiing to be the easy part. Margie McIntyre became the first true casualty after an aerobatic mistake at the race clinic course. The post flight inquiry uncovered a broken finger.

Dinner Monday night at Polo's found Debbie Bergeron, Ted Bergeron, Joe Dar, Janie Dar, Machele Jones, Liz Johns, Dara Capell, Dale Frisby, Chuck Moore, Rudy Guerrero and Margaret Norris serenading Larry Gatlin and the Gatlin Brothers with the tune "All the Gold in California." In return, Larry Gatlin sang "Happy Birthday" to Debbie and gave her a big kiss on the lips. The most rewarding moment of the evening was Dara Capell's "head-on" collision with Gatlin's belt buckle!

Tuesday offered more fresh snow and found skiers spread out on Peak 8 and Peak 9. Guide Chuck Moore led a small band of skiers back and forth from Peak 8 to 9 with relative ease.

Most everyone was observed at one time or another hitting the hot tubs for R & R after a long day on the slopes, but Yvonne McMahon holds the record for the most use of the hot tubs.

Later Tuesday evening, Sy Liebergot, with the help of Howard Paillet, Pam Paillet, and Bob 'Manhattan' Copple prepared his famous Buffalo Snort Chili for the group, who were all motly attired for the occasion in formal long johns. It should be noted that after a careful search, the chicken lips were never found in the chili.

Manuel Valle and Rudy Guerrero were judged co-winners of the coveted "long john pants with the largest appendage not believed to be a leg" award. Much later, trend-setter Becky Hall was found at the local night spot, Tiffany's, dancing in her long johns and initiating the first annual "Long John Night" at the club.

NASTAR race fever hit Wednesday and Thursday with Bob Copple and Sy Liebergot winning gold's and Clyde Riley, Dale Frisby, Joe Peddy, John Rector, Chuck Moore, Ted Bergeron and Jim Kachtick winning bronzes. Jim Kachtick advises that it pays to get older in NASTAR. He got his first medal after 20 years of skiing, not because he was any faster, just older. Joan Kachtick noted that even though Jim was getting older, he was still getting better...at what, she didn't say.

Machele Jones was the only female on the trip to learn more than skiing from her ski instructor. And speaking of Liz Johns, where was she late at night and with whom?

When not racing, Brenda Peavy,

Harry Gaston, Bob Copple and Sy Liebergot found time to tour the Horseshoe Bowl.

Elsewhere Ken Alton, Craig Townsend, Penny Watts, Anne Murphey, Yvonne McMahon, Margie McIntyre, Kathy Riley, Andy England, Bev Crawford, and Betsy Angelilli were observed skiing the numerous trails of Peak 8.

The T.S.C.-sponsored "Three Legged Saloon Race" conducted Thursday night was won by Joe and Janie Dar with Sharon Conway and John Rector finishing in third place.

The trip was quickly reaching its apex when Friday rolled around. The club race found 35 S.C.S.C.ers at the starting gate. When the racers had finished the course, Liebergot and Copple had won silver medals, and Dale Frisby, Harry Gaston, Clyde Riley, Dale Allbritton, and Chris Ginn had picked up bronze medals. Later at the awards party, Space City won the second place trophy for the club race, an outstanding accomplishment for those who had worked hard all week long.

The party at Tiffany's late Friday night was the crowning glory. Ted Bergeron performed a solo dance to Thriller ala Michael Jackson, Jolene Clifton performed a mean belly dance, Rudy Guerrero and Janie Dar were literally on the floor, and John Rector and Sharon Conway were judged the most affectionate couple on the dance floor. Betsy Angelilli was having a hard time choosing between "Chippendale." Kamikazis, El Presidente and Champagne were being consumed in great quantities, mostly by Chuck Moore and Ted Bergeron. Lisa Smith, Joe Dar, Dale Frisby, Brenda Peavy, Becky Hall, Dee Salinas, Anne Murphey, Margie McIntyre, Liz Johns and Machele Jones were also in the crowd of merrymakers.

Saturday found most of the group stumbling out of their rooms insisting they didn't drink that much the night before but looking a pale shade of green nonetheless. Minor skiing, shopping in the various shops of Breckenridge, and preparing for the trip back home filled Saturday and Sunday morning as the exhausted skiers completed the week.

The battlecry "Wait Till Next Year" filled the air upon return to Houston.

Special thanks go to Janie Dar, Joe Dar, Margaret Norris and Sy Liebergot for their assistance in making the Breckenridge trip an incredibly fun trip. Also special thanks to Tommy Baker of Coca Cola, and Tom Gambel and Roy Crawford of Aspromonte Coors for supplying soft drinks and beer for the trip.

"AT THE MINER'S CAMP": Becky Hall, Bev Crawford, Andy England, Dara Capell, Dee Salinas, Jolene Clifton, Manuel Valle

CAR 22, WHERE ARE YOU?

QUESTIONS: What is on time? Where is Kermit in the rain? Who has fire and ice? Why am I in this road rally? And why is it named after Bruce Maughs?

This is ole Signpost Johnson back with another chapter in the continuing saga of Space City road rallies. Last year I left you with thoughts of the nasty tricks that could be included in the next rally. Original Rallymaster Jean Walke did a great job of establishing this year's route. It was all inside the loop because everyone knows Bruce won't go outside it. Jean also dreamed up questions that required real thought to answer. I loved the frog under the umbrella in the bird bath. Patti Richard and Charlie Goodrich were among the few that knew that was Kermit.

This rally almost wasn't on time as Easy Thayer and Ray Naudain set up the start somewhere other than where everyone met. Fortunately Tania Andrasko was sharp enough to go looking and got the troops to the right spot.

Signpost's Rule Number One: Read everything first. To those of you who couldn't even read the ad, you missed a great time.

Rule Number Two: Make sure you have permission to use the starting parking lot. The V. P. of Programs, Rudy Guerrero, did a good job of sweet talking the security guard so the last cars with Margie Cook, Ed Johnston, Debbie Ball, and Dick Howard could at least start from the correct point.

Remember last year Signpost told you to keep your Sitzmarke cuz of the valuable lessons. The old rally pros must have missed that as they all finished out of the money. It was refreshing to see newcomers such as Janie and Joe Dar, Virginia Howard, Karen Gibson, Leilani Kimmel, and Steve Glaser.

Jean set the course through areas of Houston some may never have seen, past lots of local history, and even past the permanent home of Howard Hughes, Jr. Lisa Smith and Dale Frisby were the first finishers and even took time to find out when Howard was born. John Rice and Charles Naff were right behind them and the inevitable where did you find that answer debate started. Surprisingly, Janet and Jim Hendrix and Carol and Barry Kumins were very quiet at the end, probably too busy partying.

Rule Number Three: Think before you answer the questions. Puzzles were awarded to Ron Noska and Mike Gerstenberger for figuring out that Rettilon Park was NO LIT-TER spelled backwards. Old pros Sandy Palmer and Ron Smith got one for realizing that the flames and snow on Johnson Supply were fire and ice. Lisa and Dale also got a puzzle for Rettilon. This years John DeLorean creativity award goes to Becky Hall and Ron Reddin for Dewey Cheatum and Howe Automotive Service and Yesterday's rose is tomorrow's trash. Such imagination must have come with the car, Ron.

Other special awards not mentioned were: The City Father Award to Anne Benefield and Bill Brooks for finding who won the Heritage Society Award.

The Stop to Water the Flowers Award to Joe (open my file) Jackson and Linda Licarione. Bruce's patio will never be the same after Joe's visit. The I Wonder Where They've Been Award to Marty Matras and Susan Goolsby for arriving so late at Bubba's. Finally the I Demand a New Rallymaster Award to Pam and Jerry Pyle. If Easy gave you more time you would really miss the party.

Amongst beer, good food, and the usual BS at the end, the winners were determined thanks to the great scoring of Margaret Norris and Tania.

FIRST PLACE: Billie Nowak and Ray Davis

SECOND PLACE: Diane Compton and Lewis Dawson

THIRD PLACE: Ginger Lyons and Bruce Maughs

Right behind in fourth place were Betty Fore and Richard Wilkins. Bruce's secret strategy is to spend 30 minutes on the rally, figure out where the party is, go to the nearest bar and drink, and then go to the finish line and party. Sorry Bruce.

Rule Number Four: All winners have to return next year. I think we should hold it in Galveston.

Easy's special awards were snapped up with great vigor. Bonnie Lloyd and Robert Goggins received race cars for being the fastest finishers. Several groups disqualified themselves at the start by having too many people but they remembered Signpost's last rule: Have fun. Penny Wiggins and crew just wanted to finish once. All the fun led to too many pit stops, but they arrived in time to receive a beautiful clock so they could be on time next year.

Terry May also had a car load. I don't know how he could concentrate over the arguing but he won the Eagle Eye Award for spotting Beeler's Repair Service on a clock which made it on time. Jeri Rotenberg and Debbie Traley got a brand new set of pick up sticks, maybe they will do better with them.

Signpost's Final Rule: Have fun and make sure you make it to the party. Some people really took this one to heart. Steve Kroger moved back from Denver just so he and Anne Daly could be among the longest partiers. Easy's Hard Core Award goes to Elaine Cole, Claudia O'Neal, Diana Mills, and Rick Nevil who still may be at Bubba's drinking tequila. By the way, Elaine, who was that masked man on the bicycle?

Ole Signpost would like to thank the scorers Margaret and Tania, Event Coordinator Rudy, Photographer Sy Liebergot, and the trio of diabolical folks who set up the rally, Jean Walke, Easy Thayer, and Ray Naudain. Thanks too to all the teams for making it so much fun to watch. Till next year this is Signpost Johnson still searching for the final checkpoint.
